AQUARIUS

The Moon is full as she reflects fully the Sun's rays. The Soul reflects fully the Spirit incarnate.
The Goddess is Mistress of the psychic regions in some of Her aspects. She is both wife and mother of the God in some of Her other aspects. He is both her lover and father in some of His aspects. Beyond them is the Uralten Force known otherwise as SHIVA. SHIVA is one of the primal names of the Deity. SHIVA in his higher aspects is the Uralten Force and even what is beyond and more ancient and primitive. In some of his lower aspects or manifestations in the subtle and more condensed planes He is consort of KALI, He is BAPHOMET and BAPHOMET's lover when BAPHOMET is Mistress of the Earth. The magickal couple ie. BAPHOMET-BABALON/SHIVA-KALI/ODIN-FRIGG (FREYA)/SHAITAN-LILITH/MERLIN-MORGAN is a differentiated manifestation of the Uralten Force or SHIVA the Ancient. The Fixed Square manifests Beauty and therefore Good doesn't not prevail in those spheres. The mutable quality belong to a lower order which is the human one. With the fixed quality, we have here an expression of Creation in Its full aspects, especially with Taurus. Remember also Leo the Prince or Hierarchy, Scorpio or the Deep Transformer or Roots and Aquarius the Free or Harmony. Some say blood manifests Leo and Aquarius conjoint. Will the Aquarian Aeon see the supply of a fresh and pure blood line to support the manifestation of those aquarian qualities? We don't know yet where from this blood line will take its parental worthy qualities: germanic, celtic, non-degenerated north-east american, hindu, other healthy provenance, a selection and mixing of the best blood lines under providential guidance and breeding policy? Concerning the Hindu, present India being subverted, so SHIVA seeks other and new followers to propagate his current of potent Beauty. So while He tries now to re-conquer India through the SHIVA army, the ksatryas and the Hindu nationalists, he nonetheless implants Himself in Western Europe through many and different aspects, which all seem contradictory and unfathomable for someone worshipping the human gods such as Christ, Krisna or Buddha. Those aspects are subversive,ie: They subvert the present dying structures. Other aspects are destructive,ie: It is necessary to destroy the parasite and the encumbering. The long-term aspects are creative,ie: A new Dynamic Order will take over and manifest SHIVA possibly under a new Name for the Age of Aquarius.
It is possible KALI will bring forth the Child after having received the seed of SHIVA. Maybe that is one of the esoteric reasons behind the spread of Tantra. Authentic Tantra being the way of the warrior and, weirdly enough, the left hand path being the position dominated by the female and really the warrior path; for the warrior caste relates to SHAMBALLAH, city of violence. The female seems the object of devotion or the symbolic (true symbols are effective) manifestation of that object for which the ksatryas will slay demons, fears and deformed creations. The combat with one's own psychic residues is not an amusing one. One has to admit the pit-within-oneself. Killing the demons-within-oneself relates to and goes along with killing the demons-within-society. When the society is entirely demoniacal, then the ego is 100 % corrupt. Demons such as hope, illusory security, peace (the artificial and static kind), self-abandonment, the will-to-undifferentiate, the proliferation of ugliness. Those are all the consequences of Love applied indiscriminately in the decadent and dying phase of Pisces. The return to Chaos/Azathoth is necessary in that God needs to dissolve and recycle (spiritual?) psycho-physical material to construct new structures. Hell is the huge cosmic recycling factory in which law-obeying demons , dismantle, shape and re-shape entities, potentialities and creatures under the overseeing eye of VULCANO/TUBALCAIN/LOKI/PLUTO.
There are a lot of astray-leading roads. We think the Mauve Zone is one of these cosmic dead-ends in which stagnate psychic residues of all possible provenance, unholy relics and derelict portions of voodoo and other christo-quabalistic worms. Some theosophists and many spiritualist drink nauseous beverage out of that Mauve Zone. The future oil will be the physical correspondence of those future residual zone which will be made of the non-recyclable portions of this dying piscean aeon.

Manvantara

The prophets' souls must be trembling now, considering the apocalyptic times we are undergoing. The meaning of Pisces resides in the principle of dissolution. This sign is reserved for the old structures fatigued of life and wishing to quite the Dynamic Order, and return to the Nameless One Source and/or Chaos (i.e. the Primal Matter).

Hence, a certain number of prophets advocating peace (of a static kind), "transcendence" of organic communities, class, races, and religions, and an oversall brotherhood, so as to avoid the conflicting situations of life. Christ and Buddha belong to the same archetype: the prince-messiah calling for the unfortunates to propagate his message.

CHANDALA & KSATRIYA

The lowest classes are nearer non-differentiation than the Ksatriya caste for instance. The Ksatriya or warrior caste uses freedom within Dynamic Order. One might say the warrior caste partakes of Dynamic Order whereas the Chandala slave caste knows only the undifferentiated equality within Static Chaos.

The mob (psychic contagion that makes a crowd hysterical) happens because the plebs' psyche is weak before psycholgical infection. The term 'masses' applies to the non-differentiated servants, the Chandala, not to the Ksatriyas.

WORDLY & OTHER-WORDLY

The slaves aspire to leave this earth for the benefit of some "warm" collective cosmic soul, whereas the warrior aspires to live fully Dynamic Order on this earth. Love and compassion oppose Caste and Hierarchy in a way. Secularized, love and compassion become the Welfare State providing responsibility-less care to the common man.

SHIVA IN HIS DANCE OF DESTRUCTION AT THE END OF EVERY SUCCESSIVE TIME CYCLE

DEIFICATION OF THE CHANDALA

A sign of the times: people are fascinated by the Untouchables and other Chandala. The caste-mixed have an unstable psychology verging on the periphery of the psychic dustbin.

Hence the idolization of the multitude of "psychotic" show business stars. It is also a sign that the Christian show is nearly finished; if we apply the Hindu caste system philosophically to Christo-Western history, we have the following stages:

1. The caste-free stage, or the first christo-gnostic communities.

2. The Brahmin stage, or the Dark Ages until about the Cathedral times (the unified christian [Catholic] Church).

3. The Ksatriya stage - Europe between the fall of the Knights Templar to the 18th Century (Kingdoms & Empires).

4. The Vaisya stage - the Industrial Revolution to the present West (liberal democracies).

5. The Sudra stage - the socialist period from about Marx to the end of the Soviet Union (totalitarian states).

6. The Chandala or casteless stage - which is now: the rule of the mob (ultra-permissive societies).

SPIRITUAL DEATH

Michael Jackson is the perfect singing reflection of present mankind: sexless, classless, race-less.

Buddha and Christ, as other gods in previous religions, are now dead on the physical and psychic levels. But the psychic imprints of both remain in the astral regions, linked with their worshippers' fears, anxieties, and desires. These eggregores become, then, 'demoniacal'. One might say eggregore Jesus is technically a demon like demon Gautama, and like the decadent gods of the decadent Roman Empire(the Dionysus-Orphic myths were dead, the Circus games were secularized and as degenerate as the present day Olympic Games, themselves being a pale and unholy reflection of their holy ancestor of Greek times, race-mixing proliferated).

So with millions of Christians consciously or unconsciously raving about the "Anti-Christ", this creates some kind of collective thought-form which "needs" to materialize at some point or other. The "Anti-Christ" will of course be the demon Jesus possibly blended with the demon Gautama. The god-centre being shut off, these psychic energies go erratic and shapeless, like amoeba; pointless and useless entities loved by the countless Chandala.

NEW AGE

So we see already the Anti-christique religion, based on a mixture of dead traditions such as Christianity, Buddhism, Red Indian Shamanism, etc.

The New Age is here to dissolve, and in its turn to be dissolved.

As opposed to this, we have got the Age of Aquarius coming. Aquarius is a fixed star-sign; i.e. it doesn't deal as such with human being like the mutable signs do: Pisces, Virgo, Gemini, Sagittarius (Christ and Buddha are human gods).

The fixed are the alien and non-human gods like SHIVA (Taurus, another fixed sign with Leo and Scorpio). Aquarius will manifest the fixed square. From decay (Scorpio) fertilizing the soil, and a Tauric semen, the Tree (Aquarius) will grow and be as a shining sun (Leo).

AQUARIAN & ABRAHAMIC

Another view is: Aquarius/Freedom complementing Leo/Hierarchy, and Taurus/Creation complementing Scorpio/Roots.

The Aquarian tribes will be young and aristocratic. The Modern World is just a secularized application of the Old Testament, relics of a dying tradition belonging precisely to that tribe whose god was "God". The Abrahamic clan being borne from a blend of so many races and cultures (Egyptian, Babylonian, Phoenician, Greek, Canaanite, and Sumerian, all from the cross-road of the Middle East), it will probably die with the end of the Old Aeon; a mixture of old structures and ageing/decaying archetypes.

Not only will the Abrahamic clan extinguish, but all of its supporters and consequences - the Modern World as a whole.

MAGICKAL APARTHEID

Therefore it is necessary to separate ourselves from this dying Aeon, and to help our Celto-Nordic resume their place, and to repudiate once and for all the Abrahamic psychology (like the Indian nationalists who are fighting for the restoration of the SHIVA Current), to establish some kind of magickal aparth-eid, so that when the "Anti-Christ" dies only his unholy folk will be terminated; i.e. they will be the only ones infected psychically by this "Anti-Christ", who will disappear. Then the show will be over. Their will be nothing fake to sustain their troubled psyche. The mass-consumerism here to standardize mankind's psyche so that the slaves equally receive the lies of Choronzon will be dead.

The Nietzschean tribes of Aquarius however will survive in a mutant fashion the coming Ragnarok.

AVATAR OF AQUARIUS

The prophet or Avatar of Aquarius will reject Love (Pisces) as Christ and Buddha rejected Justice and the Patriarch (Aries). It is indeed necessary to go many steps further than Aleister Crowley who was still entangled in the globalist Abrahamic clan, but announced Aquarius on his own ("Do What Thou Wilt Shall be the Whole of the Law"). It is the same breath which animated Nietzsche, the attempt of the Third Teutonic Empire, the first 10 years of the USA (the latter being born in the decade that Uranus, the "new" ruler of Aquarius, was discovered), the New Age travellers, the return of SHIVA. But nobody is prophet in his own land.

Naturally the Chandala hate the pure Ksatriya; hence the war will be merciless between the New World (dis) Order of the dying Aeon and the Dynamic Order of the new one to come. Fortunately, we know who's going to die...

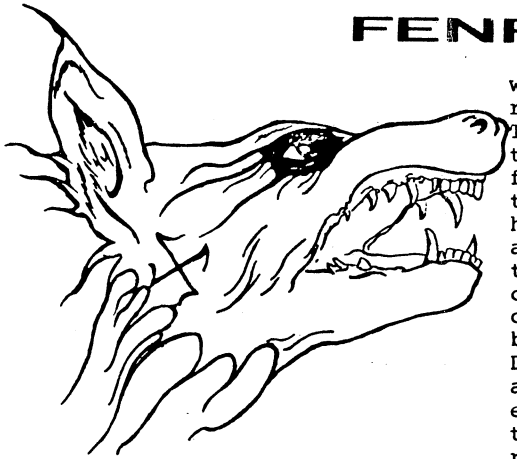
FENRIR



Of all Loki's children, it is Fenrir who until now has maintained an enigmatic and elusive position; his status as a mere monster has not befitted him with the attributes that Godhood gives Hela, or that familiarity (cross-cultural archetypes) has given Iormungand. And yet Fenrir has found his followers who identify with his violent and restless character.

Esoterica gives little indication of the two-fold nature of Fenrir; so to find his second-fold attributes (as well as his first) it is the original myths and epics that must be consulted.

CHILD OF LOKI

To recap: Fenrir (with Hela and Iormungand) is the child of Loki and the giantess Angrboda ("Distress Bringer"). His form is that of a wolf so monstrous that when he opened his mouth his jaws reached to both heaven and earth. The Aesir Gods realized the threat the Fenrir posed to them, so at first Tyr (God of War) befriended the young pup, feeding him, but as he grew they were left with no alternative but to chain him. This the Gods attempted to do with a chain called "Laeding", and then one called "Dromi". Both were broken easily by Fenrir. The Dwarves were then employed to forge a silken bond which they constructed from: the sound of a cat's paw, the hairs of a maiden's beard, the roots of a mountain, the dreams of a bear, the breath of a fish, the spittle of a bird.

-All intangible objects, on Earth at least, and since they did not exist, the bond could not be broken by anyone or anything (other than at the appropriate time, that being Ragnarok).

The bond - "Gleipnir" - was taken by the gods, having persuaded Fenrir to go with them to Lyngvi, a desolate island in the middle of Lake Amsvartinar (The Guld of Black Grief). Here they asked Fenrir if he would let them bind him once more. Warily he agreed, but on condition that one of the Gods put his hand in Fenrir's mouth to ensure he would be released if he failed his test of strength.

Only Tyr had the courage to accept the wolf's conditions, so when the Gods failed to release Fenrir, Tyr's right hand was bitten off. Gleipnir was attached to a chain (Gelgia) which was pushed into a hole in a large rock (Gioll); Fenrir's mouth was prised open with a sword, and there he remains until Ragnarok.

FENRIR UNLEASHED

At Ragnarok Fenrir is unleashed. Breaking his chains he runs free onto the plain of Vigrid where he kills his 'blood uncle' Odin - "for there dies Frigg's delight". In turn, Fenrir is killed by Odin's vengeful son Vidar.

Fenrir himself was not childless, for in free times he fathered the wolf chidren of the Hag of Ironwood (the forest east of Midgard). They were Hati and Skoll who pursued the moon and the sun respectively. Hati's attacks on the moon are seen every month as it waxes and wanes. Finally at Ragnarok they both devour their goals. Neither of them are listed amongst the dead of the Day of Doom so it may be concluded that, as polarity requires, they live on into the Regeneration of the world.

UNCHANGEABLE FATE

Fenrir represents, as does the Wolf's Hook Cross, unchangeable Fate. There is an aura of fatality around him; the gods sense this, and none more than Odin. For Odin, blessed as he is with the power of "Ofreskr" - second sight, the wisdom of Mimir's Well (for which he had exchanged one of his eyes), the secrets of the Runes (for which he had hung for 9 days on Yggdrasil, the World Tree), and the prophecies of the Volva, was well aware of the fate of the Gods. That Balder would be slain, that his poor unwitting brother Hodur would commit the act, that the forces of Darkness would break their bonds and destroy the Gods of Victory and that he (Odin) would die at the jaws of Fenrir.

Thus the binding of Fenrir with Gleipnir is but a postponement of the inevitable; it is merely the Gods - and Odin in particular - playing, and realizing, their role. For although the Fate incurred by Fenrirmay be unavoidable and unchangeable, it does not mean defeat or resignation. Life is about fighting, even if the odds and outcome be against you. this is the ethos of OUR ancestors, sadly lacking in much of today's world.

Herein lies the magick of Fenrir; for unlike its siblings, the wolf's magick has little minor application; rather it is on a far grander scale, that of Aeonic Magick.

CHAINING OF FENRIR

AEONIC MAGICK

Simply put, Aeonic Magick and all that it entails is the manipulation of acausal energies to either: (1) aid the wyrd (destiny) of a currently existing aeonic civilization (for e.g., the Western Civilization of the current Thorian Aeon). (2) create a new aeon and a subsequent aeonic civilization. (3) distort or disrupt an existing civilization and its Aeonic forces.

It is the latter that is of most relevance to Fenrir and our existing Western Civilization and Aeon. According to the Correspondences of "The Elemental Quadruplet" (see Then Flaming Sword #4) Fenrir is associated with the season of Winter; the Western Civilization is entering the final, Winter stage. As such, Fenrir can be seen as the 'patron'or symbol of this stage, and is a pointer to both the events that will occur naturally as befits this stage, and the options open to the Adept in his/her endeavours to alter this Aeon, and hasten or retard its demise.

The choice is entirely upon the individual Adept; there is no set rule: Seeing this current Aeon has approx. in excess of 500 years to go, and Western Civilization just under 400 years, there is no reason why - to speak symbolically - Fenrir can't be chained for a little longer. His release and the death of this civilization and Aeon is inevitable; there is no doubt of that : one only needs a drop of Odin's insight to see it. But if the right steps are taken, then a pre-Ragnarok Regeneration of the Western mind, body and soulmay be possible. this would provide a lasting influence on the next Aeon (and its civilization) as the Hellenic Aeon - as a vital stage of the evolution of Western Paganism - has had on the current Western one.

Alternatively, the Adept has the option of unleashing Fenrir at this point in time in order to perhaps quicken the demise of this civilization, ensuring an entirely new civilization - without the influence of Western civilization - in the next Galactic Aeon. Perhaps such an action is premature, considering the length of time left to run, however temporal unleashing can be used in order to enact the goals of a Regenerated Western Aeon. Such temporal unleashing could be: *the disruption of capitalist money markets, thus removing the financial control of plutocracy; *the promotion and support of 'enemies' of the West, for e.g. Islam is a potential (albeit dangerous and volatile) pawn that could be manipulated towards an advantage (the danger however lies in the ability to remain in control, to keep Fenrir on a taught leash); *the support of extreme Right-wing (and Left-wing) political groups to aid disruptive attitudes and behaviour. the nature of these groups and the people they attract would ensure that they would easily self-destruct or disintegrate once their usefulness had run its course; *the rise of viable National Socialist groups expressing noble, pure, unadulterated NS philosophy. Such groups would lay the basis for a Regenerated (NS) Western Civilization.

Such 'temporal unleashings' aid the disintegration of existing power structures; those that can be regarded as distortions of the Western Civilization's original ethos, while retaining the basis from which to build upon.

However, such actions cannot be undertaken frivolously or on a whim. They require an appreciation of wyrd, both collective and individual. All intentions, all goals,must be clearly defined and all actions and reactions should be understood by the instigators. In other words they must be Adepts in the true meaning of the word.

An Interview With

MIGUEL SERRANO

"ESOTERIC HITLERIST"

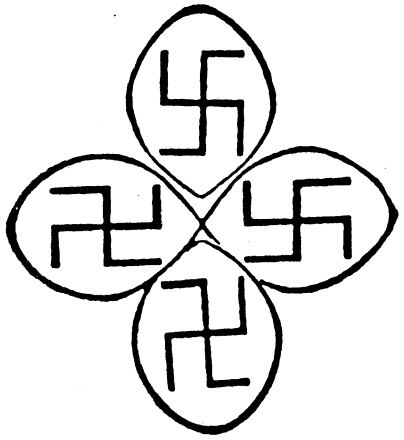
The following continues the interview with MIGUEL SERANNO, chilean diplomat, world traveller and author, begun in the previous issue of THE FLAMING SWORD, where he had described his conception of "Esoteric Hitlerism", and his friendship with Ezra Pound and Carl Jung.

Many writers on the occult have made references to the alleged links between the Third Reich and Tibet, but often these writers are not reliable schoalars. Can you personally confirm that such links existed? Did you learn anything of this connection from the Dalai Lama or other high-level Tibetans?
What do you suppose were the common interests between the Third Reich and Tibet?
It has also been claimed that Soviet troops found a large number of Tibetans in German uniform who had committed suicide amongst the ruins of Berlin. Do you know anything of this?
The only certain thing in the link that existed between Tibet and the third Reich is the personal connection between Adolf Hitler and Sven Hedin, the Swedish explorer of the Himalayas. Both were interested in finding the shortest physical way to relate geographically Germany and Tibet - Berlin and Lahsa.

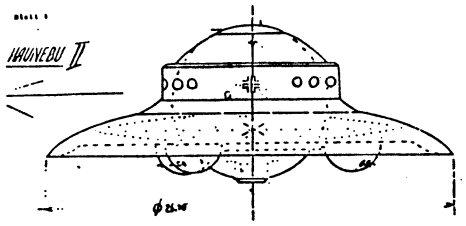
In the spiritual and psychological world, the relationship between Berschtesgaden and Lahsa existed even before Hitler came.

You ask me about Dalai Lama. Unfortunately he is now one more prisoner of "Globalism" and a tool of the Jews.

There are many legends about the Tibetans and the Battle of the Bunker. as a matter of fact, the mission of the Tibetans was to preserve and protect the entrance of the Hollow Earth. Like the Incas in America. The real link between Tibet and the Third Reich was the Swastika, "Levogira", because the directions of this swastika are the same as that of the religion of Bö, of pre-Buddhist Tibet, which was Aryan of the "Dropas", of the Hyperborean.



What were the esoteric currents behind the NSDAP and the Third Reich?
Hitlerism, as Otto Rahn could say, was Luciferian (nothing to do with satanism). Lucifer is the Morning Star and the Ruhne "Veneris". The real esotericism behind Hitler and the very small elite that surrounded him was an "esoterical scientificism" of "other" science and "other" technology. This was principally based on the implosion principle. this led to the UFOs and rapidly passed to another dimension, with the absolute need to loose the war here in order to gain in the "parallel world", or even better, in another "place situation". [3]



GERMAN FLYING SAUCER PLAN, HAUNEBU II, NOV. 1943 (SERRANO, "LOS OVNIS DE HITLER CONTRA EL NUEVO ORDER MUNDIAL, CHILE 1994)

The National Socialist regime banned the Thule Society and other occult orders whose members had been involved with the founding of the NSDAP. Why were these orders banned?
Did the Thulists and other occultists retain influence in the NS regime?
The Third Reich banned the Thule Society and other occult orders because there were many old nonsenses in these esoterical clubs, as well as some connections with Free Masonic societies like the Golden Dawn. The founder of "Thule", von Sebottendorf, had connections with turkish Freemasonry. Immediately after the arrival of the Third Reich he escaped to Istambul, where it is said he committed suicide in the Bosphorous in 1945, at the end of the war. He was probably killed by the Intelligence Service, after being manipulated by it during his lifetime.
This doesn't mean that in the Thule Society there weren't great personalities like Rudolf Hess, Alfred Rosenberg and Gottfried Feder, the real creator of the new economy of the Third Reich.

Do you consider the SS to have been an esoteric order as some authors claim?
The SS was also influenced by the Templar Order, as Julius Evola said to me. There was an elite SS which was working with Tantrism. They didn't have enough time to fulfill their conceptions. Anyhow, they tried hard to produce the Over-Man by using blood alchemy. The Absolute Man [4].

Do you consider NS to have been strictly a phenomenon arising to meet the needs of the 20th Century, or to be more broadly part of an esoteric tradition?
There was an exoteric National Socialism until 1945. After this date, at the end of the War, what followed was the esoteric Hitlerism, which nobody will be able to stop now because it is the "constellation" and revelation of an Archetype which was incarnated in the person of Adolf Hitler, who is immortal because of this fact. It is not a "fetishism" to adore and be at the service of an Archetype. Quite the contrary, this means to be a founder or a warrior-priest of a new-old Religion.

How do you view Christianity in relation to NS and Fascism, considering many Fascist leaderssuch as Leon Degrelle, came to NS from Catholicism?
Hitlerism and Christianism are completely opposed, as Paganism and Christianity are. Christianism has been completely spoiled by Judaism. My dearest friend and comrade Leon Degrelle had great doubts at the end of his life, I am afraid. And by special disposition asked to be cremated like Baldur. This was an Aryan decision and not a Christian one. [5].

Leon Degrelle y Miguel Serrano.
Madrid, 1984

Do you have a metaphysical view on the origin of races, or a Darwinian evolutionary view?
I am opposed to Darwin in my conception of race. I don't have evolutionary views, but involutionary ones. What a pity that my books Adolf Hitler, el Ultimo Avatara and Manu, por el Hombre que Vendra are not edited in English, because there you would find the Orpheon and Hitlerian Cosmogony. Spirits - better to say "beings" - came to this visible world and embodied with matter in order to fight here the Demiurg, which is the real creator of Satan-Jaweh-Jehovah, which in turn created the Jewish genetic robot in order to contaminate the Planet Earth. The first "earth embodiment" of these spirits took place in a Polar body or Hyperborean race. From there in came the dramatic involutionary story of the mixture of the pure race with the original earthly beings, and then came the Aryans, which means "twice born"; that is, those who try to recover the purity of the "first born". This is the true meaning of racism. [6].

You are, I believe, a worshipper of shiva. to what extent is NS a reflection of Hindu cosmology as propounded for e.g. by Savitri Devi?
Shiva is the same as Wotan. Both of them at the beginning were only heroes of the Polar or Hyperborean race, the embodiment of an Archetype. The legend has made them Gods. The first race had the power called "odil", "vril", etc. which has now been lost. The task of the Esoteric Hitlerists is to try to recover this Power and become like shiva or Wotan again: The Over-Man.

Do you view history as cyclic, and if so, do you consider, like Oswald Spengler, the West to be in irreversible decline? Should we seek to "save the West", or - as Nietzsche said, "to push the falling", so that something new might emerge?
I think the view of History as a cyclical phenomenon in the Indian and Greek way of thinking is the appropriate one. The eternal Recurrence. We are now at the end of the Cycle of Kaliyuga. It is like a harvest; the exact number of grains have matured and very few have done so. A new age will bring about the Sun again in a New Earth, or in the soul of the actual Earth. Our struggle is to save the soul of this Earth, and to avoid that She may perish along with everything else. The exact number of those saved have left this battleground in the UFOs - this spiritual machine with Hitler, the Fuhrer, Wotan-Shiva.

I think Spengler confused the "cyclical" ideas of the Indians and the Greeks, diminishing and transforming them into a mechanical and biological situation of growing and dying. He circumcribed this to the decadency of the Western Civilization, when really it belongs to the whole world, and for the planet earth as well.
As for "pushing the fall", it is something quite ridiculous to think about this, because it is not necessary at all. The "acceleration of time" will bring the end even before what we think or expect.

How do you view the present world situation, with a push towards a "New World Order", American hegemony and global consumer "culture"? do you think the globalists will succeed in establishing some type of New World Order, even if only temporarily?
The Jews have been preparing the so-called New World Order since the beginning of History. The "global consumer culture" is the means for that. It is already here. With the end of Bolshevist Russia, international capitalism is destroying the frontiers and nationalities. Soon after there will come the end of capitalism, of paper, plastic and electronic money. The technotronic, electronic and cybertronic "globalism" will serve very well to impose the Teochratic (Jehovah-Jaweh) world dictatorship, together with virtual reality and computer ecology. With virtual reality the Jews think that they have discovered a magic device in order to give the last and mortal blow to actual reality, or to Mother Nature, in a way that even nature cannot react against this and destroy itself along with all the rest.
The esoteric Hitlerist war is not only on this Earth, but in all the Universe against the servants of the Demiurge (the enslaved Aions). It is a terrible but glorious War.

How do you envisage the future of Europe? Do you think a United Europe is a realistic prospect, considering the longstandingethnic rivalry in such areas as former Yugoslavia?
At the end of World War II the SS approved and made known the "Charter of Charlotenburg", and they conceived a real "New World Order" of Ethnic Father-Lands, or natural groupings of racial and linguistic stocks. They even published a map of Europe where all the artificial boundaries dating from World War I were abolished. With the material loss of World War II, the "Charter of San Francisco" was approved, that is the United Nations, where all races are mixed so that the Jews can control them. This is the "Globalism" of today's unnatural and monstrous world.

What role do you think Russia will take in future world affairs? Many liberals and Zionists are fearful of a "Fascist" takeover of Russia. Do you think it likely?
I am always afraid of Russia; there is there a seed of madness in this area of the world, surely because of the mixture with the Mongolian and yellow race. The "Charter of Charlotenburg" envisaged for Russia a very serious and deep ethnic division: the Viking and German stock with Europe, and the rest with Asia, Mongolia and China. In order to have Fascism and Nazism in Russia it is necessary to understand the racial problem.

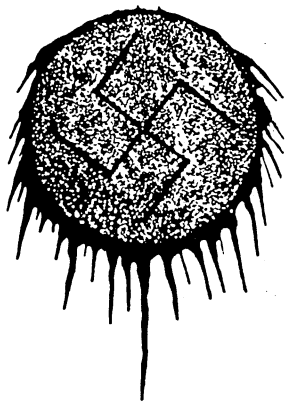
The prospect of an open Hitlerist resurgence after decades of propaganda seems remote. How do you view the future of NS? Will NS emerge perhaps under another name and another symbol; or do you see Hitler and the swastika as enduring symbols, perhaps even archetypes with an enduring power of their own?
At this moment I cannot predict the prospect for a Hitlerist resurgence. The only thing that I can say is that I am always surprised that in spite of decades of brainwashing propaganda, young people are reborn again as Nazists and admirers of Hitler, as if they were "reincarnated" in order to follow with the struggle on the Earth. This gives me hope and new energies to continue with the fight. Hitler and the swastika are enduring and eternal symbols, certainly archetypes with "enduring powers of their own". The Archetype will do the work by Itself, even without our best knowledge and beyond our will and our limited span of life. That is our hope, our belief and the only thing that I know.



The Chilean military junta was called "fascist" but let in the global corporations and adopted the free-market economics of Milton Friedman et al. How did you view the Junta?
The Junta was a disaster for Chile, as all professional military are. Hitlerism and Nazism are completely the opposite of a military dictatorship. Franco was a traitor who destroyed the Falange, Gen. Vargas destroyed fascist "Integralism" in Brazil; Antonescu destroyed the Iron Guard in Roumania; the military in Chile helped to kill the young Nazis in 1938, and Pinochet helped the Jews coming into Chile as well as Friedman's liberal super-capitalism. I was always openly against Pinochet's regime, totally separating Hitlerism from his dictatorship. Hitlerism is a cosmogonic conception, a totalitarian and teochratic Weltanschauung, in opposition to the totalitarian and demoniac cosmogonic conception of the Jews.

What is your view of Islam, which presently seems to be the only major force standing in the way of global consumerism and usury?
My view of Islam is not favorable at all. they are also a fanatic monotheistic people, and we are pagans and polytheists. We "live and let live". We are defending ourselves against fanaticism and monotheism. Islam will never feel that we are their brothers, and at the end we cannot count on them. Ismail is a brother of Jacob and in the final analysis they will be on good terms, as they have started to do nowadays.

I have read that you have made references to Lucifer. How do you view Lucifer, and is there a connection between Luciferianism and Esoteric Hitlerism?
Yes, I am a Luciferian in the sense that Lucifer is the Morning Star, the "most beautiful light", and the Morning Star is a God-Goddess, Venus. It is more than a planet, it is a comet that stopped where it is now, in order to recall to men their divine and spiritual origin and to show them the way to recover it. There, in Venus, is Adolf Hitler now, together with the elite who managed to leave the earth at the end of World War II.

What is your opinion of "neo-Nazism" which often seems to be influenced by a superficial American-style bigotry rather than a deeper European philosophy? What is your opinion of such neo-Nazi leaders as Lincoln Rockwell?
I will not speak bad of Rockwell. I think he was touched by the lightning of the Archetype and was killed in order to be reborn in the "Last Battalion". His loyal follower Matt Koehl has been trying hard to keep some spark of the fire alive, even in the midst of this terribly superficial "American-syle bigotry".

What do you consider Man's destiny to be? Nietzschean Over-Man? What about space colonization as the ultimate expression of the Faustian soul?
There is no destiny for all of mankind, only for some. To recover their divinity, but not as "unconscious Gods," but fully conscious, as a Total-Man, in the sense of Jungian "individuation"; a God conscious of Himself which is only possible to achieve on this Earth. To obtain this is the meaning of Esoteric Hitlerism. When one has reached this state, one becomes the UFO or the "Vimana" itself, without needing an external new science or a new technology, because one is reaching a "parallel world", or better said, a new "place-situation" where we will meet the Fuhrer and the warriors of the Last Battalion. This will be the real "space colonization" and the "ultimate expression of the Faustian soul."

FINAL WORDS

I want to express to the young comrades of England, Australia and New Zealand and to the English and German speaking world at large, that none of these things will be obtained if we don't give a synchronistic battle also in the physical world against our Great Enemy, even at the risk of losing our mortal life. In this connection we have a common ideal with the Moslems, who think to die in battle in order to reach the Heaven of Allah. We believe that if we are killed or murdered for our ideals we will come to Walhalla, where Wotan and our Walkiria will give us centuplicated all of that which we were unable to achieve in our warrior life on earth... But only if we are real Esoteric Hitlerist Warriors!

Editor's Notes:

5. Degrelle was leader of the pre-War "Rexist" (Christ-the-King) Belgian Fascist movement. He fought on the Eastern Front with the Waffen SS, attaining the highest military distinctions and praise from Hitler, who had stated that if he had had a son he would have wished him to be like Degrelle. In 1994 Serrano wrote a book dedicated to Degrelle, Nuestro Honor Se Llama Lealtad.

6. The identification of Satan with Jeohvah and the Demiurge as the creator of the material world was a belief held by certain gnostics and the Cathars. Others identify "Satan" as completely outside the Judaic context, deriving from the Greek "An Accusation"from whence the Hebrew, "Accuser".

3. Otto Rahn was a researcher of the Cathars and a seeker of the "Grail", who professed to be a "Luciferian".

4. Julius Evola, an Italian philosopher, author and avante garde artist, was a major Fascist ideologue who maintained connected with NS Germany. He became a major influence on the thinking of the post-war European New Right; an influence that continues.

Something of the SS-Tantric connection can be discerned from the Bardo Thodol having been read over the body of SS Col. Wolfram Sievers after his execution at Nuremberg. Sievers was head of the SS occult research department, Ancestral Heritage.

STAV

A Northern Martial Arts Tradition

Introduction

The word Stav literally means knowledge of the rune staves though within Norway from which this particular traditions originates the word can mean both "rune" and "staff". The runes refer to the knowledge aspects and the staff the martial and fighting aspects of the tradition. The aim of this article is to explain the basis of the martial side of the tradition though Stav is a complete tradition, which encompassed all aspects life and culture - All classes within society having knowledge and skills in the areas relating to their role in life.

Stav has its roots in the philosophy, mythology and beliefs of pre-christian Northern Europe. The rune system being used being the Younger Futhark, which was being developed and established at this time The reason this was being done I am told was due to the invasion of the Nazarene in other parts of Europe, the Yarl class seeing the damage being done set about devising a system for the preservation and transmission of their knowledge, hense I believe the Younger Futhark and systems such as and like Stav. The system that I am learning belongs to the Hoskollr Tradition being a Yarl class family of Norway. This was originally a family tradition kept within the family though due to various reasons the head of the tradition decided to open it the world. Partly from fear of it being lost forever and the recognition of the need to re-establish the cultures and traditions of native Europe. This system has been taught within the Hafskjold family for thirteen hundred years to each succeeding generation. Other families it is thought have preserved similar traditions though little or nothing is known of them at present.

The Martial Art

The Martial arts tradition is based around a system of stances, breathing and mental exercises that are drawn from the shapes and root sounds of the runes of the Younger Futhark - Also there are five levels or basics drawn from the five classes of traditional society. the way there would react and fight in a combat situation. Once these basics have been grasped one start's training in combat, which is initially taught with the staff, which teaches the lines. One then can go onto the other weapons and unarmed combat, the system works in such a way that any situation whether one is armed or not can be understood and dealt with.

Though the classes of traditional society do not exist within society anymore they are very important part of the system to be grasped and understood There is all so a specific way of finding what class you naturally belong to which will be discussed later, which involves the finding of ones rune, patron deity and animal folgie. This must be done correctly and honestly, as one would only be cheating ones self. This can be difficult as most people want to be wolves or bears and will lie rather than be associated to rabbits, squirrels and the such like

The Stances - Methods and Principles

The sixteen runes of the Younger Futhark was considered the least number of runes that could provide a viable method of handing down the system. The sixteen runes consist of an upright stem with up to three short lines, all can be represented by the human body. The vertical main stem is formed by the body trunk and the intersecting lines by the arms and legs (See appendix for description), Ur and Sol being the only exceptions (This cannot be done in the same way with the Elder Futhark)

The performance of these exercises has two direct physical benefits. It exercises the body in a gentle way without any kind of pressure and it promotes complete breathing Generally people in the West use and emphasise the upper part of the lungs during breathing In the East breathing is more likely to be from the lower part of the lungs Due to the arms being used in the Stav stances breathing is promoted in all areas of the lung

The stances are done form a neutral posture, first performed on the right hand side of the body and then the left hand side During the stances you should breathe deeply at the back of the throat In through the nose and out through the mouth The mind should be focused totally on the performances of stances - It being a moving meditation. Once this process has been mastered one can meditate on the meaning of the rune It is important to keep a relaxed, correct and natural posture, when one moves into the posture think about what one is doing - If one is lifting the arms from the side, it is done by lifting from the elbows not the shoulders In fact the shoulders should not really move through out the set of moves, this includes such postures as Isa - A knowledge of the mechanics taught in Eastern Martial arts is a help

Doing the complete set of stances means going through all sixteen postures twice, first right handed, which begins facing North and end facing East The left handed begins facing East from where the right hand side is completed and ends facing North - Imagine someone sitting on a hill watching you, depending upon the shape of rune you are portraying, present the observer with either a side on view or face on view to allow them to see what rune you are portraying Fe would be side view - Tyr would be face on view.

Turning - Half moon step

The turns are made by lifting the heel then sliding the lead foot in an arc to a wide stable position. Transfer weight to the leading leg one has just moved, them move the other leg in the same arc until the feet are back together. This should be done balanced, controlled and with grace as when doing the runes (See Appendix for description of half-moon Step).

Beginnings and Endings

Stand upright, stomach muscles pulled in.
Bow from the waist - Lean forward to point of loosing balance.
Clap twice - arms wide open. Draws attention and states intent.
Breath in and out nine times, both before starting stances and at end.
At ending, one does nine breaths, claps twice them bows.

There are five versions of these Stances, one for each level or class. (See below for Class classifications) Only the forms for the first two levels are given. That is: Trel and Karl, the trell uses just breathing though Galder is introduced at the Karl Level though in the most basic form. Being the chanting of the rune name, as one moves in then out of the stances. The important thing to consider here is that there is only one vowel sound intoned with each rune, one does not split it into two. The other three levels each has a very specific way of doing both galder and stances, one point being the sequence of which one does the stances is changed. The length of time taken to do the form increase as well the Konga level taking several hours to complete.

Stav - The Fighting System

In order to learn and practice the Martial Arts within Stav one needs a regular training partner and access to a Teacher. A background within Eastern Martial Arts also makes the understanding of the concepts being taught would also be a great advantage.

The five levels of Society

CLASS	FUNCTION	COLOUR
TREL (SURF)	DEPENDANT	DARK BLUE/BLACK
KARL (CHURL)	LAND OWNER	GREEN
HERSE (LORD)	WARRIOR	RED
JARL (EARL)	PRIESTLY CLASS	WHITE
KONGA (KING/WIZARD)	MAN OF KNOWLEDGE	ROYAL BLUE/BLACK

As stated above the stances each class has a slightly different approach to and way of doing the stances. To understand the fighting applications of the five levels, one needs to consider the mental attitude and approach of each class Regarding the responsibility of each class Odin speaks of this with The "Havamal" from stanzez 144 onward

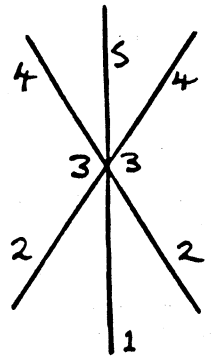
CLASS	ATTITUDE TO COMBAT	WEAPON
Trel	Backs away from trouble, neutralises the attack.	Staff/Club
Karl	Defends own property, drives away intruders.	Battle Axe

Herse	Defends society, breaks opponents balance and controls him.	Sword
Jarl	Avoids getting involved, slips past attack or neutralises the threat from a safe distance.	Spear or Long bow
Konga	Moves in and neutralises threat before it is even carried out.	Wand or any.

Using the Appropriate Lines

The Hagel rune plays an important role within the fighting concepts of Stav, it suggests five different lines of attack. That can be adopted when dealing with an attack. These five options tend to be the ones adopted by the five different levels These are the lines that are used in the five basics which teach an understanding of the five levels.

Level	Lines and Response
Trel	1) Retreat and counter along centre line
Karl	2) Overwhelms attack
Herse	3) Takes attacker off balance and controls him
Yarl	4) Evades attack and either just disappears, or controls from behind
Konga	5) Moves in and neutralises attack before it is launched



The purpose of the five levels within the martial arts relates to the different approaches to dealing with an attack, the social and philosophical concepts and implications are irrelevant in this context.

The Trel withdraws and tries to protect his own body. The Karl moves out of line of the attack and drives the intruder of his property. The Hersa breaks the attackers balance and controls him. The Yarl evades the attack and avoids conflict. The Konga neutralises the attack before it is even launched.

There is no hard and fast way of applying these principles though in general they depend on which line is taken when evading and counterattacking They also depend upon the attitude of mind adopted in any given situation. The Trel is glad to get away with his life, the Karl just wants the intruder of his property, the Herse knows it is his duty is control a menace to society, for the Yarl it is beneath his dignity to get involved in brawls so he evades and the Konga has achieved individuation and Mastery, that he can deter attack be sheer force of will. Stav attempts to recognise the levels they are working on and to be able to respond appropriately to unsure the best outcome to a conflict situation. As within Physis of the O.N.A , a calm centred state of mind is the most essential asset one can have.

Most people, who take the time and trouble to determine where their strengths really lie, fit into the Karl level, the producers of society I again stress, taking the time and effort to find ones real level honestly is the most important thing to attend to. Only then can one learn the Internal knowledge needed to understand and take control of ones self, which is the prerequisite to the understanding and control of the External world

The Hagel rune can be seen at the centre of the archetypal matrix known as the hexagonal matrix or "The Hagel Grid" (See Appendix), the form of which can be seen as a map or diagram showing the structure of the physical plane Within this grid are hidden all the runes and within its most central grid. lies a sevenfold figure, which symbolises the seven days of the week and their seven corresponding astrological 'planets'. This relates to the Septenary correspondence of the O.N.A. in some respects though there is no connection I know of. This does give an interesting coincidence though, as both are genuine Western Tradition. (I will be doing extensive research in this and other areas).

The Four Pre-Basics

The stances within Stav are very important though are relatively static and more active training provided by the four pre-basics exercises. These involve using the four foot staff, which is the same as the oriental Jo. The basic position for holding the staff is in the middle, balanced in the right hand at ones side, tip facing forward. The tip end is slightly higher than the butt

Bow and the tip dips towards the floor - Place right foot where the tip was - Extend staff out into "As" position

The first pre-basic involves sliding the staff back into "Tyr" while pivoting right heel over to the left - bring left hand over and left hip forward and drop the staff into "As" again - Then return feet to normal neutral stance

Second pre-basic is the same exercise using THOR which means the lead hand is reversed and holds staff loosely

Third pre-basic begins by stepping back on the right foot, rotating the staff clockwise 1b0 degrees so that the but of the staff ends up under the right nipple - Left elbow is moved across the body and the butt rests in the crook of the thumb and forefinger - From the front the staff should be practically invisible - Turning the hip brings staff over into "As" - It is then slid back into "Tyr" with the left hand forward and into a shortened "Ar" stance before coming forward into"As" again

Forth pre-basic again starts in "As" - right hand slides to tip of staff and brings it over into "Tyr" with the left hand forward - then the staff is shot out through the left hand into "As" like a snooker cue

All these exercises can obviously be done on both sides moving forward or on the spot by sliding back after each strike. I practice these exercises fifty to a hundred times each day, they being a good form of low impact exercise in their own right and they develop a good degree of flexibility and co-ordination It is good to visualise and opponent when practising, as is striking a tennis ball hung by string The ball should swing backwards not all over the place. I was told to use a small postage stamp as target and be able to hit it every time though have in no progressed to this level yet One fluid in all exercises one can practice all together using the same method as is Physis with the eight wooden posts

These exercises are all most identical to those of Jo-Jitsu, I recommend you track down a book on this as it will make a lot of points more clear

The Five Basics

To teach these five principles, Stav has five basic exercises which are the nearest thing within the tradition to Kata. These exercises are performed with wooden training weapons. The attacker uses either a battle axe or Sword, the sword being the usual as they are readily available in the form of the Japanese Boken. The defender uses a Staff which is identical to the Japanese "Jo" staff not "Bo", this one should just be able to fit within and hold in the Tyr posture of the stances. If the Staff is to big it can be cut shorter otherwise there is no problem.

Each attack involves walking to wards each other until the attacker draws the sword and attacks the defender.

Trel level: The sword attack slices horizontally from left to right attempting to cut through the defenders right wrist - The defender withdraws backwards on the right foot holding the staff across the body, at an angle of forty five degrees - tip down. The staff makes contact with the sword though NO! attempt should be made to block it as such - The staff should be held loosely and the tip rides the sword blade The left hand grasps the staff and the right hand slides down to the butt so the weapon is held in the "Fe" position - The defender drops his arm to the "As" position flipping the sword out of attackers grip or control - The defender is then free to strike as he will or withdraw.

For the remainder of the exercises the attack is a downward cut from above the head.

Karl level. As the attacker strikes with a downward vertical strike to the head - the defender shifts to the left - off the centre line to the karl line - holding the staff in the "Fe" position. (see appendix on lines and responses for specific details) - Within this position on should be directing the tip into the eye or throat of the attacker - The distance should be that you are in easy reach and one has the option to drive staff home by pushing with butt hand - One should stay close to the centre line, as it means the attacker has to withdraw the sword to create enough momentum in the blade to do any damage - Moving into the "As" posture instead of "Fe" leaves room for counter-attack.

Hersa level (Technically complex to do and explain though will have a go. I know full well it is difficult to grasp things like this from paper) This involves stepping in with the right foot and raising the butt of the staff engages with the right oblique of the attacker. Having made contact the defender lowers himself into "Sol" positioned on the left knee - As the attacker withdraws the staff is flipped over into "As" position still covering the attack though leaving a line open for attack - This move is very effective with the spear and a lot more obvious to the principle and one has added distance - The butt is used to engage the oblique - then when the attacker withdraws or one can even push back - the spear is flipped over to attack the throat with the head of the spear - when one is within "Sol" the staff or spear is held in the "Fe" position though over ones head - One can judge whether this is correct or not by the attacker trying to hit you on either side - This is obviously done without loosing contact - The areas to look out for are the knees and back - As if posture is wrong they are vulnerable.

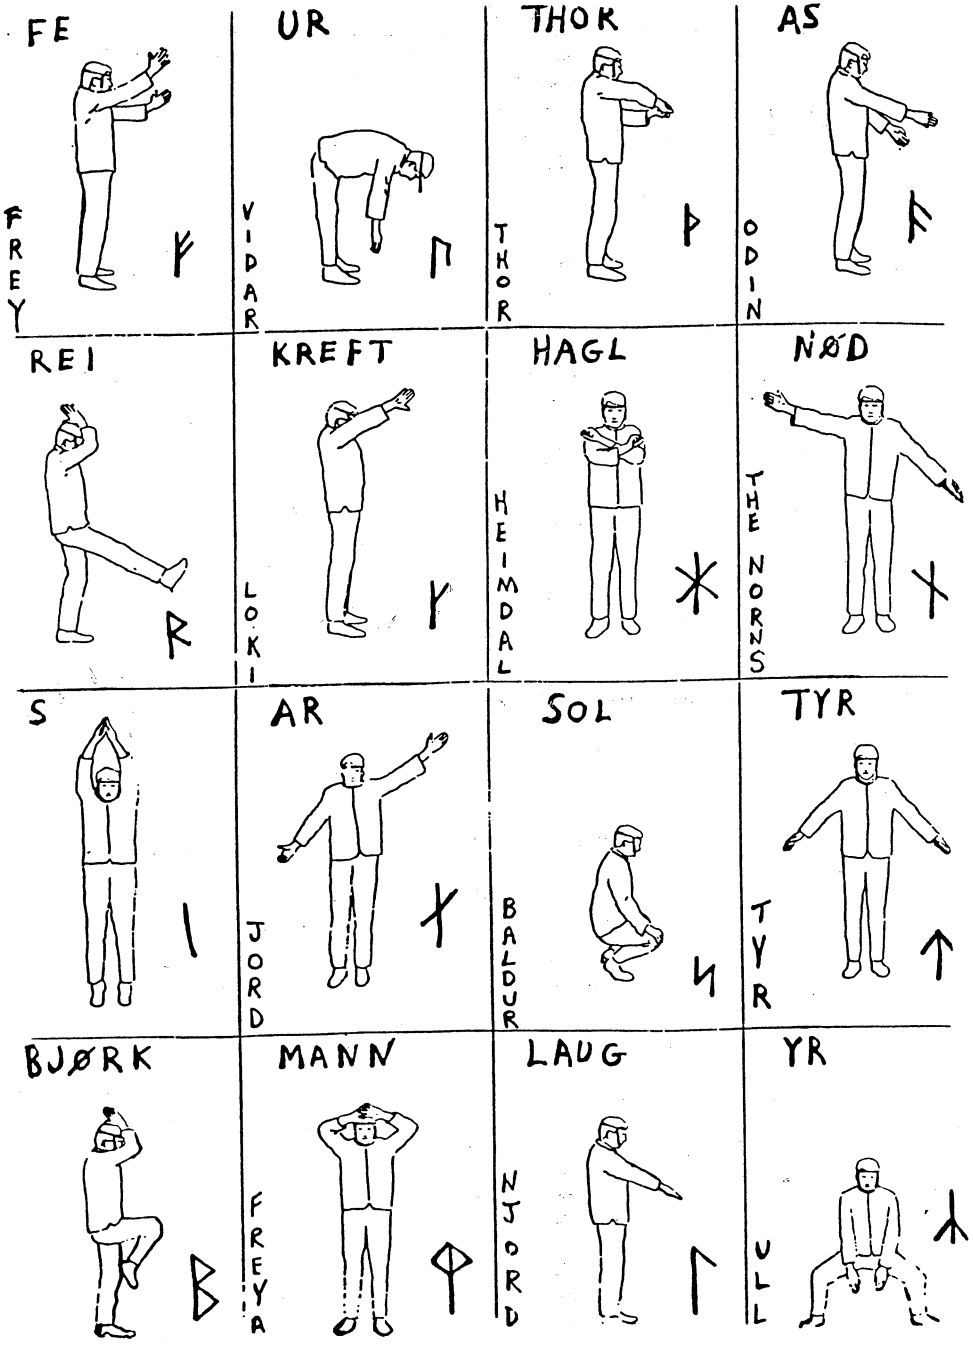
Yarl level: In this the defender slips past the attacker at the last moment - either walking on - or turning and attacking from behind - This should be done on the side of the body one is carrying the staff - Eye contact is keep at all time - In fact this is important on all exercises - As it gives one domination of the situation - If done correctly the wind can be felt and heard as the sword just misses ones arm as one moves past

Konga level: This requires fine judgement and co-ordination - As the attacker draws the sword and starts to raise it - The defenders right foot slides forward - left hand grasps tip of staff and right hand slides down the butt into the "Tyr" position - One then steps right though with the other foot moving into the "Kreft" so the tip of staff or spear is inches away from attackers nose - Then one reverses the move backward in to the beginning position -

These five basics along with the stances are the basis of Stav. Although they may appear simple they teach all one needs to know in order to defend ones self. It is essential one has a regular training partner. Once the five basics are mastered and the lines understood, one can start devising various attacks and defences using the runes and postures on their own and in combination along the various lines. It as at this level one starts to develop ones own personal style based on ones natural level.

The most important lesson to learn from these five basics are how to use the five lines without getting hi , how to neutralise an attack without using force against force and how to use the centre line effectively to control an attacker who is stronger, better armed and more skilful than oneself

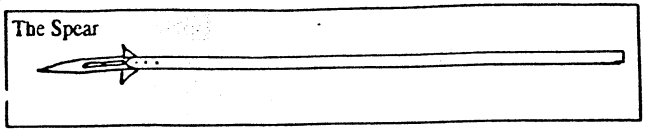
As within the O.N.A tradition, once one understands oneself and all the forces and energies within the Septenary Tree of Wyrd, one can see, predict, manipulate and control the forces of nature that are indifferent to human names and labels The same I feel is within the Stav tradition and the Web of Wyrd represented by the Hagel Grid, which contains all the runes and are in one respect only the different ebbs and flows of energy. This is one area I have set myself for research and study, I feel as both are genuine Western traditions there is a possibility that they could originally derived from the same source. I hope with time to associate the runes to the paths and spheres of the Septernary System and create a complete martial system for the O.N.A. tradition and The Black Order. If you or anybody you know would be interested in helping in the task it would be a great help. K. LOKISON

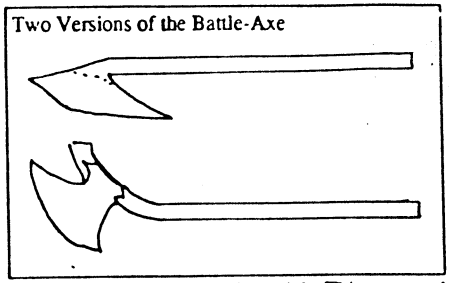


The Weapons of Stav - Hoskollr Tradition

Although any weapon can be used within the system of Stav, eight are taught specifically. The core weapon is the Staff, a four to five foot weapon made of ash, oak or Yew. The staff is extremely useful for teaching lines of attack and defence, distancing and targeting. It is cheap and easily available.

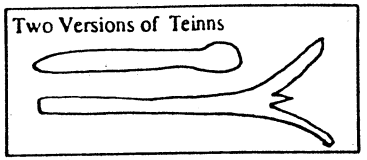
The second weapon is the spear or half pike which is used with similar techniques to the staff. In fact a spear is simply a staff with a spearhead attached. The spear is also a relatively low cost weapon. The spear is the military version of the civilian staff and is still in use in the guise of the bayoneted rifle.



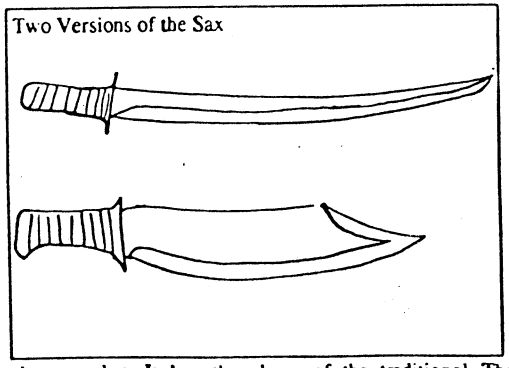


The third weapon is the battle-axe which again has the distinction of being a cheap and easily available weapon and tool. The battle-axe is capable of generating enormous penetrating and smashing power and is thus one of the most useful weapons for defeating plate armour. It survives in today's armies as the sharpened entrenching tool.

The fourth weapon is the club which today is taught in Stav as the walking stick. This weapon has the advantage of being legal to carry in all environments, even aboard an aircraft.

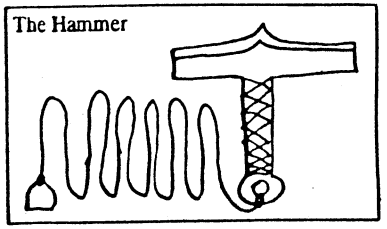


The fifth weapon is the Teinn (wand) in several versions. It is easily concealed on the body and can easily be substituted with a knife or torch if the need arises.



The sixth weapon is the Sax, a short, broad bladed, single-edged sword of between twelve and twenty inches. It is an extremely efficient weapon for hand to hand combat fighting against several opponents. In the better made versions it can be rather expensive (two to three thousand pounds) but a cheap machete or panga will do the job., as recent events in Rwanda have made all to horribly evident.

The seventh weapon is the hammer. This is a projectile weapon with a length of rope attached. It can also be used for close combat. It has the shape of the traditional Thor's hammer, is flat and sharpened to an edge on top. It is very much a specialist weapon, and an acute sense of distancing and precision of delivery is essential. It is a difficult weapon to learn but is extremely awkward to defend against.



The last weapon is the long bow, well known in Europe for well over a thousand years. In the Hoskollr tradition it can also do duty as a staff or spear when unstrung. When strung the bow provides effective protection against blows from a staff. A small spearhead is often fastened to one end of the bow with a groove for the string.

The Numinosity of National Socialism by David Myatt, £1, Thormynd Press.

This defines NS and Hitler in the various ways applicable to the word "numinosity" - spiritual, awe-inspiring, revealing what is sacred. It is this spiritual sense that is said to make Hitler and NS "immortal". "The Spiritual Significance of Adolf Hitler" gives a biographical background of the birth and early years, and his achievements in power. "The spiritual significance of Adolf Hitler is his noble vision - he has made us aware of what is possible. He has made us aware that we can evolve further, we can create and live in a noble society dedicated to high, cultured ideals... He has shown us that our life, as individualas, does after all have a glorious purpose."

"The Philosophical Foundations of NS" simply defines NS as "a conscious, unique, expression of the evolutionary imperative."

"The Harmony of NS" describes it as a philosophy where the folkish-community allows the individual to live in balance with Nature, on the basis of "Blood & Soil" which alone can connect the individual to a sense of belonging.

"The Galactic Empire & the Triumph of NS" postulates space colonization as the ultimate destiny of the Aryan,rather than any ideas of invading and dominating other peoples.

"Numinosity can be obtained from Realist Publications for $5, or direct from Thormynd.

There is a Statement of principles by Scott Reap of the Sinister Order of Fenrir (note new address: Box 37, Gilman, Il. 60938 USA). This opposes egalitarianism and upholds social darwinism as given by Arthur Desmond in "Might is Right", and the doctrines of Nietzsche on slave morality and master morality. However, like many views on social darwinism being advocated lately, the principles of natural slection tend to be overextended by a hatred of the supposed 'subhumans' of one's own folk, which is NOT NS or Fascism at all but a reactionary libertarianism or neo-conservativism, used to justify the socio-pathic role in economics of 19th C. English merchants and 20th C. plutocrats. The real value and achievements of NS and Fascism seem to be entirely missed: i.e. the creation of a folkish or national community which integrated the people virtually in its entirety as a cohesive and productive force, and de-proletarianized the proletariat, which, after all, had been created by the economic darwinism arising from the Industrial Revolution and the emergent bourgeoisie.

"Strategies towards Adversity" proposes mundane and esoteric means of disrupting plutocratic society, including the use of ecological movements and subversion against Big Business. "Tradition & Satanism" is an extract from the booklet Realpolitik by this editor, considering Satanism as defender of family and national values based on Nature, against the onslaught of plutocracy and world government. ORDER NEWS

Sweden

We are pleased to report the Chartering of "Ostara Lodge" in Sweden. The Ritual of the Twin Ravens has been performed, apparently with immediate results. The Lodge's Master has already translated Order brochures into Swedish, and has had success in recruiting among nationalist youth.

As can be seen in the picture below of NS Swedes at a 1994 demonstration, marching under the Wolf's angle rune, Sweden has great potential for the Order.

U. S. A.

A new National Commander has been appointed to replace Ash West. A contact address should be available in the next F.S.

Britain/N.W. Europe
Regional Commander K. Lokison reports that a camp in the Shropshire hills was recently undertaken by Order members in Britain. He is interested in starting a newsletter as a contact medium among NW European members; natually this will require a subscription from those interested to cover expenses. Commander Lokison can be contacted at: BM Algol, London WC1N 3XX England

Ritual Manual
We are interested in publishing a ritual manual in addition to the basic rites in The Book of Wyrd. These might include hexing rituals, and Seasonal rites for Yule, Easter, the Solstices and Equinoxes, etc. They will hopefully derive from a variety of European sources and not solely Germanic/Norse, such as Celtic, Slavic, Finnish... Please send your submissions to World H.Q.

Australia - Lodge Wotan
Two specialist magazines are being published by Lodge members: "Jackboot" for enthusiasts of WWII, Third Reich and NS archives; and "Hammarr", which has an Odinist orientation.

A Lodge member is selling a variety of colour NS artwork and posters in A4 and A3 sizes. There are 17 types available, ranging from paintings of Hess and Himmler, to German maidens and SS/military posters. Send several IRCs for details to:
Lodge Wotan, Box 3016, Norman Park 4170, Brisbane, Qld.

The Australian National Commander asks all Lodge Masters and Commanders if they could send names & addresses of any potential members who have emigrated to Australia to the above address.

MAKE THE FIST RED

We are the secret Ones who wait in the silence,
like a pestilence
long forgotten.
In blood and sinew
we await time's great gate.

Each stepped forward
they were the next in line, that which they fought
led the young into their graves
For brotherhood and honour
they marched unto death
the noble and the brave.

The pride of generations pit against the foe
their love and hatred stained with blood.
For history's loss
is history's gain.

We ride the cosmic tides that wash across the earth,
sweeping in their wake
the little lives of men.

A FIRE FROM THE SOUTH

In the darkness of this age a fire burns
A fire of change in the south, Surtr
From the south we shall set sail
Travelling along twisting rivers of fire
To fight at Ragnarok, back to back with our brothers of Ice.

Rise Mighty Giants
Be proud of our land
We the sons of Muspell
We of these southern shores
We who rest on the circle of fire
We with our flaming swords
Stand and fight

May the blood of our enemies fail to quench our swords of fire.
